BIG CROWD AT CERULEAN

Hopkinsville People Largely In Evidence Seeking
Fresh Air.

OVER 40 WERE THERE.

Mirth, Melody, Morpheus,
Splendid Table and Health-
Giving Water.

A small army is down at the Cerulean Springs Hotel and Capt. Pool is in the midst of a busy season. There are several families from the south, three being there from Mississippi, and owing to the yellow fever scare, many more are expected. Capt. Pool, the proprietor of the Hotel, says that they will be welcomed as he is confident that the yellow-jack mosquito cannot live there. Mr. W. T. Tandy's family has been there for a week or ten days, but returned to the city yesterday. Mrs. L. L. Leavell and her children are there for a few days; Mr. W. S. Moore and two of his daughters will be there for a couple of weeks; Mr. Charles Richardson, assistant cashier of the City National Bank, Paducah, will remain until Saturday. Mr. Richardson ran up to Hopkinsville last week to see Mr. John B. Trice and several of his schoolmates of 30 years ago. Miss Louise Jones and Miss Agnes Plack will return with the family of Mr. W. T. Tandy. The hotel is pretty well crowded, but prospective guests need not stay away on this account, as the host has the happy faculty of caring for all who apply.

Sunday was the anniversary of Capt. Pool's birthday, but he refrained from the use of fire-works, which he fired off in great profusion last year. The Capt. does not hesitate to tell his age. He has seen 65 summers and is looking hale and hearty and told a young lady that he expected to live for 20 years yet, if he was not killed by lightning or a railroad accident. He is doing a highly satisfactory business, and when asked when the season would close said there would be no end to the season, as he intends to keep open house the year round.

Everybody enjoys the splendid menu of the hotel, the pure, fresh air and the health-giving water. The young belles and beaux are having the time of their lives, the devotees of the dance are numerous and during the week the pavilion is crowded. Everybody is happy and all are sorry when the time for their departure rolls round.

Following is a complete list of the people who went down Sunday to get rid of the dust and heat of the city and enjoy a day out of town as well as to get a good square meal or two:

R. M. Wooldridge, E. G. Callis, Will Callis, W. H. Southall; W. G. Harris and Luther Haydon and wives, Vince M. Williamson, L. Yonts, Misses Alline, Sadie and E. Blumenstiel, Charles B. Jackson, J. W. Allen, Albert Clark, Caldwell Peland, Gabe Long, Will Hancock, L. A. Tuggle, Miss Daisy Williams, W. S. Wade, M. E. Bacon, James M. Forbes, T. J. Hunter, Lawson Plack, Will Myers, George E. Dillman, George Roach, W. A. Barnett, Jr., Max Meyers, Frank Slaughter, Jesse L. Burrus, H. Franklin, James Watson, Mrs. Taylor, John T. Edmunds, H. M. Dalton, James L. Long, L. C. Ragdale, Thomas W. Morris, Lucian H. Davis, Frank Pepper and daughter, Miss Alice.

There were also many others registered Sunday from Cadiz, Princeton, Gracey and other points. A band of five pieces discoursed sweet music during the day and the Sabbath was passed in an orderly and joyful manner. During the evening a number of solos were sung by lady and gentlemen guests, and though the returning train was an hour behind time, the hours were passed so pleasantly they did not seem long.

A FULL DOZEN DEATHS A DAY

Is the Record Now Being Made in New Orleans.

NEARLY 1,000 CASES.

Fifty Fresh Infections Reported with 19 More Turned in Afterwards.

New Orleans, Aug. 13.—Following is the official yellow fever record up to 6 p. m.:

New cases, 50.
Total cases, 963.
Deaths today, 12.
Total deaths, 154.
New sub-foci, 14.
Total sub-foci, 202.
Cases under treatment, 343.

The heavy increase in the number of cases which began four or five days ago is beginning to manifest itself in the death list, which can be expected to grow gradually for the next few days. The number of new cases today seems small in comparison with yesterday's record, but it is really nineteen short, as that number of cases were turned in by an inspector just after the hour for closing the report.

These figures will figure in tomorrow's report.

Saturday's figures were 105 new cases and 9 deaths.

MRS. BARNES DEAD.

Passed Away Saturday Afternoon, Aged 61.

Mrs. Margaret Croft Barnes, wife of J. J. Barnes, ex-sheriff of Christian county, died at her home on North Main street Saturday afternoon at 6 o'clock, at the age of 61 years. Consumption was the cause of her death. She had been confined to her room for about eight months. Deceased was a native of this county, being born at Crofton. Her maiden name was Croft, being a sister of Mr. David Croft. She leaves her husband and two children—Lucien, of this city, and Charles, of Birmingham, Ala. She was a member of the Christian church for 30 years. In the absence of Rev. H. D. Smith funeral services were conducted at her home by Rev. H. C. Beckett, of the Universalist church, Sunday. She was buried in Hopewell cemetery.

FINE PROSPECTS

For Flourishing School at Bethel Female College.

Prof. Edmund Harrison, of Bethel Female College, says he has never had such fine prospects for a large school as he has for the session beginning next month. His capacity is 50 boarding pupils and indications point to a crowded building. Last year he had about 36 boarding pupils, but this time is expecting an increase of 40 to 50 per cent. A large number of his new pupils will be from the Southern States. The faculty this year has been increased and strengthened and the building has been newly painted and otherwise improved.

IN TWO WARDS

Primary Elections Will Be Held To-Day.

Democrats in two wards of the city will make nominations to-day for councilman in legal primary elections held from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. In the First Ward, Messrs. H. W. Tibbs and J. M. Clark are candidates and both are confident of success. In the Sixth Ward Dr. J. B. Jackson is opposed for re-nomination by former councilman E. M. Flack, who was called upon by about 100 to make the race.

Lent His Best Letter.

In the early days of New Zealand an apologetic paragraph appeared in an Auckland paper in which the editor explained the absence of lower case "k's" in his issue. He had foolishly lent these letters from his font to the government printer, who, having failed to return them, the indulgent reader would please notice that whenever a blank space appeared in a word the letter "k" was to be understood. There are only 14 letters in the Maori alphabet, and the letter "k" is used in that language as frequently as the letter "e" in English.

Oldest Farm Holding.

Recently the stock was sold on a farm in Dumfriesshire, Scotland, which had been held by a family named Moffatt since the year 1300, when King Robert Bruce made a grant of the land to the Moffatts. They held it for three hundred years as owners, and the rest of the time tenants of the dukes of Buccleuch.

Renders the bile more fluid and thus helps the blood to flow; it affords prompt relief from biliousness, indigestion, sick and nervous headaches, and over-indulgence in food and drink. G. L. Caldwell, Agt. M. K. & T. R. R., Choctaw, Ind. Ter., writes, April 18, 1903: "I was sick for over two years with enlargement of the liver and spleen. The doctors did me no good, and I had given up all hope of being cured, when my druggist advised me to use Herbine. It has made me sound and well." 50c. Sold by Cook & Higgins.

American Coin for Europe.

Since it seems to be determined that the expenditure of Americans who go to Europe for the summer averages $1,000 for each person, it follows that $200,000,000 of the so-called balance of trade of $400,000,000 this year will be covered by these foreign voyagers.

The rush to Europe this year is breaking all records. The number of first and second class passengers who have already been carried across is 80,000. Thirty thousand more will go in July, and the total for the season is estimated at 200,000.

Has Stood the Test 25 Years.

The old, original Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. You know what you are taking. It is iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure, no pay.

EVER WATCHFUL.

A Little Care Will Save Many Hopkinsville Readers Future Trouble.

Watch the kidney secretions. See that they have the amber hue of health. The discharge not excessive or infrequent. Contain no "brick-dust like sediment." Doan's Kidney Pills will do this for you.

They watch the kidneys and cure them when they're sick. Hopkinsville testimony proves it. J. W. Tunks, of 312 W. Seventh St., who is employed at the M. C. Forbes planing mill, says: "The condition of my health was such as to cause me a great deal of worry about my future. I had almost constant aching across the small of my back and the kidney secretions were highly colored, excessive and irregular, in fact, the disorder was so pronounced that it had been said it bordered on diabetes. I also suffered at times with indigestion which caused me a great deal of distress. At one time I was scarcely able to do any work at all for nearly a year. I doctored and tried various remedies but nothing did me any permanent good until I used Doan's Kidney Pills which I procured at L. A. Johnson's drug store. I had them only a few days when I noticed a change for the better and by the time I had finished the box I found they had brought about so decided an improvement in my condition as to convince me of their worth, and I am more than thankful for the relief that I have received."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name--Doan's--and take no other.

PUT UP A BRAVE DEFENSE.

Six Men Surrounded by Two Hundred Indians. But They Held Out.

A detachment of six men was carrying dispatches from a command near Fort Oliver to Camp Supply. Of the six two were scouts, Amos Chapman and William Dixon. The others were cavalrymen, relatives of the latter. Far from any refuge they were surrounded by nearly 200 Indians. They sought shelter in a buffalo wallow and prepared to hold their ground. The attack came at six o'clock in the morning and the long, long day stretched before them. In the first rush four of the men were wounded, Private Smith mortally. The other hurts were severe.

They were hemmed in on all sides in an open plain, and were outnumbered almost twenty to one. One of the scouts, while a severe fire was being poured in at them at close range, succeeded in throwing up a sandy intrenchment with his bowie knife and his bare hands. His comrades held the Kiowas and Comanches off until this little help was ready as a refuge and they moved into the trench, the wounded walking with brave and painful effort.

Although Private Smith was wounded unto death, he sat up right in the trench to conceal his crippled condition from the foe. From early morning until night this handful of five men was under an almost constant fire, often at such short range that they could bring their pistols into play. Thus they fought for their own lives and defended their dying comrade, without food and for drink only a little muddy rain water mixed with their own blood. They killed more than a dozen Indians and wounded about a score.

Relief came that night, but it was 36 hours after the first attack before medical aid and food could be given them at the nearest post. Private Smith died before camp was reached. Every man was wounded, Scout Chapman severely, but not dangerously. This band of four soldiers and two scouts, some of whom had been marching for weeks amid the most dreadful privations. They were worn to skin and bone, but their souls were as "big as all outdoors" and they blazed at no odds under heaven. And by such men as these was this nation made.

THE JAPANESE LANGUAGE.

Change Proposed Under Supervision of Specially Appointed Government Commission.

The progressive spirit of the Japanese is about to show itself in a new direction, though success in the development of the idea may not be immediately accomplished, says the Spokane Spokesman. A government commission has been appointed to make a report on the advisability of adopting Roman characters in the written language of Japan, and a prominent member of the commission has arrived in the United States to pursue inquiries along the lines of the proposed change.

The Japanese language has many features that are puzzling to all except special students and now that the kingdom is taking its place among the foremost nations of the world in the various arts of war and peace an improvement in this matter is felt to be most essential in connection with the advances being made in other directions. Chinese characters and ideographs have been used ever since the introduction of writing in Japan, and these have been frequently modified and adapted to local conditions so that even the Chinese do not recognize them. Increasing intimacy with the outside world calls for change, and it is interesting to note that "the little brown people" are as eager to advance in civilization as to win in war.

Most Efficient Workers. President Faunce of Brown university, uttered these striking words in his most recent baccalaureate sermon: "Among the certain temptations to which our eager occidental life is peculiarly liable is the constant tendency of the work to master the workmen. The real failures in our industrial life are the men whose revenues are advancing while their souls are shriveling. The most efficient workers of the modern world are those who will not be hurried."

Rheumatism.

When pains or irritation exist on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment gives prompt relief. E. W. Sullivan, Prop. Sullivan House, El Reno, O. It is the only remedy I have found that gives immediate relief." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Cook & Higgins.

CURRENT AND COMPASS.

Treachery of Both Responsible for the Stranding of Many Ships.

Even a steam dredge has pride and is therefore unwilling to admit that it deposited itself voluntarily on the shores of Long Island. At my rate, states the New York Sun, the captain of the government dredge which went aground a day or two ago on Jones' bar has declared that he was carried thither by a strong current setting toward the beach and by a compass which had one or two points of undetermined error. These two, the current and the treacherous compass, are old familiar friends of stranded skippers. For many years that deadly current which drives vessels toward the south beach of Long Island has been found in nautical song and story. Curiously enough, there are skippers and skippers who forget all about it till they hear the keels grating in the sand, and then they remember that every one knows that perilous stream which sets men toward Shinnecock or Fire Island.

And there is the fallible compass, too. Every navigator knows that the compass is subject to the seductions of neighboring steel and iron and that only in a few places on the earth does it point to a geographical north anyhow. But somehow there are still captains who do not recall these facts till they have gone aground. These captains are swift to confess that their compasses were not telling them the truth, which is the same thing as admitting that they did not know where they were steering. But current or no current, compass or no compass, there is a friend who never deceives the mariner, and who can be trusted implicitly in the approach to Sandy Hook from all quarters of the sea. That friend is the lead line. When a captain goes ashore on the Long Island or New Jersey beach, it is usually because he has forgotten to make systematic use of the lead, and strangely enough he never accuses that instrument of inefficiency when he is publishing his excuses.

SYMPATHY OF ANIMALS.

Noted Naturalist Thinks That Such a Thing Is Beyond the Lower Order.

An Iowa correspondent asks me to give my opinion as to whether or not any of the dumb animals have sympathy, and added that a minister at a funeral in their town had said that no animal except man was capable of sympathy. I agree with the minister, writes John Burroughs, in Outing. Sympathy, I think, is beyond the lower animals. When we sympathize with a person we put ourselves in his or her place; we feel sorry for him; we pity him; we would gladly alleviate his suffering—all of which implies more or less imagination and uninterested regard. Susceptibility to the sufferings of others is one of many higher attributes. When sympathy was born the race lifted above the purely animal plane. The next step in taking the sufferings of others upon yourself, which is the highest form of altruism. Pure selfishness rules the lower animals, and necessarily so. Sympathy is not necessary for the continuance of the species, but affection for their young is. Animals certainly have a feeling of comradeship for each other, and experience something like grief at separation, yet a dog or a cat or a horse or a cow will sniff at the body of its dead fellow with apparent unconcern. A cry of distress among the birds will bring every bird within hearing to the spot and cause them to be more or less agitated, but it is only because they are alarmed for their own safety; a common enemy may be about. In the herd and the flock a sick or wounded member is often fallen upon by its fellows and destroyed. If any animal ever experiences the emotion we call sympathy it is, of course, the dog. The dog has so long been the companion of man that he often shows in his nature a trace of the purely human.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages,
and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease,
requires a constitutional treatment.
Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers that they offer one hun-

TOBACCO SITUATION

As Summed Up By a Clarke- ville Paper. Air Full of Interesting Things.

ITALY WANTS BEST.

Only Good Tobacco Now in Hands of Growers' As- sociation.

The air is full of interesting things, much that cannot be told, but they do say that our boycotted friends are walking the floor at nights and spending their days in looking for a way out by a compromise road, or any old way to keep out of Bellamy's Cave, says the Clarksville Leaf-Chronicle. As the story goes there is trouble in Italy. The Italian people are not pleased with Mr. Perigo's West Tennessee purchase, and are demanding the goods contracted for,
that is, strictly Clarksville tobacco.
It is thought that Italy will call for nearly or quite all the stocks held by the Farmers' Association. Enough of this. It is not our business to take care of the stuff Mr. Perigo took off of "Independent" hands to get around the Association. Here we are looking at Bremen, our beloved German friends who have been so easily beguiled and deceived by the trusts and misled by their agents
over here.

Now here is the other side of the question from headquarters—a high official of the Farmers' association writes a confidential member asking for the actual facts relative to the situation. We are permitted to print the official letter as follows,
and which may be of interest to our Bremen friends:

Dear Sir: In compliance with your request we herewith give you a brief resume of the tobacco situation as at present. There is in stock unsold tobacco at Louisville, Clarksville, Hopkinsville, Paducah and Mayfield, comprising all the dark tobacco in the West, less than 7,000 hogsheads. The association holds only 15,000 hogsheads of unsold tobacco in all the dark tobacco markets
of the West, making a total of 23, 000 hogsheads of dark tobacco unsold. Bremen has bought less than 5,000 hogsheads. Her purchases have all been sold with the exception possibly of 250 hogsheads. She will require this year 6,000 or 7,000 hogsheads more, and the demand from other sources will be much greater than the supply.

The crop of 1905, as generally estimated, will not exceed 50 per cent.
of an average crop, hence it can be plainly seen that the association, with the holdings of the 1904 crop
and its pledges of the 1905 crop, thoroughly controls the situation.

We insist and urge that the farmers mark up the prices on tobacco, sell no more and plant none next year.

was shot to death by his wife, who

once thought thieves were at work and opened fire. Mrs. Cobb is pro-

FOUND DEAD BESIDE TRACK LAST SUNDAY.

Coroner's Jury Says Man
Was Killed by an
I. C. Engine.

HEAD WAS BADLY CUT.

Supposed Victim Sat Down
and Went to Sleep.

As the 6-40 I. C. train reached a point called Buffalo Hill, about midway between Gracey and Ceru-lean Sunday morning, a dead negro was seen lying alongside the track, after the train had passed him. The conductor's attention was called to the body when the train was stopped and backed a short distance, the conductor and others supposing that the man had been killed by that train. When the body was examined it was found that it had been lying there for some time, as the body was stiff and the clothing soaked by the rain which fell about 2 or 3 o'clock Sunday morning.

The negro was taken to Cerulean
and the coroner was called up from Cádiz to hold an inquest. The right side of the head had a long deep cut and the left shoulder was badly bruised, looking as if the negro had been struck on the head, behind the ear by the pilot of the engine with such force as to throw him over on his shoulders. The coroner's jury stated in its verdict that he came to his death in that way.

It is supposed that the negro had sat down on the track and gone to sleep. The negro's name was Sam
Melvin, but better known as Sam
Winston. He was one of the section hands between Gracey and Cerulean, but Friday and Saturday
had worked for Mr. John Thurmond, who paid him $2.40 when he quit work. Only 75 cents was in one of his pockets. The negro was 28 years old and unmarried. He had the reputation of being a sober man and was reliable, though not very bright. He ate supper at Mr.
Thurmond's Saturday night, and nothing was known of his whereabouts until his dead body was found.

Of the ten applicants who recently took the civil service examination for positions as postal clerks, six passed, two white and four colored.
Mr. M. T. Bartley secured the highest average and takes his place at the head of the eligible list. He went to work this morning in the postoffice as substitute for thirty days for Clerk W. H. Croft, who has gone on a visit to California.

GUTHRIE FAIR.

Managers Greatly Elated
Over Its Bright Prospects.

The managers of the Kentucky and Tennessee Fair Association at Guthrie are greatly elated over the prospects of the greatest success ever achieved at that place, and it does look promising. The railroads have made reduced rates—one fare
plus 25 cents from all points.
Splendid carnival attractions have been secured and then the finest lot of horses ever brought together
will enter the contest for the handsome prizes offered. There are now 50 pacing, trotting and running horses quartered on the grounds, and 75 additional stalls have been engaged for those that are coming.
Several entries have been received from St. Louis and other fine stock promised. The people in the county are in a good humor for the recreation and in high expectancy.

Thursday Aug. 17th, the first day of the fair is Dark Tobacco Growers' Protective Association day, and the following notable speakers will be on hand to address the people in the interest of this great tobacco question, viz: Hon. F. G. Ewing, Hon.
A. O. Stanley, Hon. Ollie James,
Hon. J. B. Fort and Hon. J. E.
Washington.

The L. & N. will run special trains
during the Guthrie Fair at the usual reduced rates, Aug. 17, 18 and 19, leaving Clarksville each day at 1
p. m. Also a special leaving that place at 11 a. m. Also the regular morning train, leaving Clarksville at 7 o'clock and returning at—o'clock.

WILL PROBATED.

The Late R. P. Claxton Makes Bequests.

The will of the late R. P. Claxton was admitted to probate last Saturday. Numerous small bequests are made and the major part of his estate goes to his widow during her life time. The will was made in 1904 and witnessed by J. H. Dillman and Edgar Bradshaw, and names Winston Henry as executor. The executor has the power to make sales of property and manage the estate according to his best judgment. The following small bequests were made in the will:

A balance of eighty dollars on a note is bequeathed to Mr. Claxton's daughter, Mrs. Kate Wells. To his daughter, Mrs. Ida Raggsdale, a fifty dollar account. To his son, Mrs. Susan V. Mayton, another daughter, a fifty-three dollar note is given. To his son, Joseph Claxton, is given a fifty dollar account.
A life ownership of a house and lot in Casky is given to his son, R. L.
Claxton, and at his death the property is to go to the legatee's children.

Death of T. L. Fleming.

After a long illness of typhoid fever Mr. T. L. Fleming died at his home in the Southern part of the county last Saturday. Mr. Fleming was about 40 years of age and leaves a wife and three children. He was a kind neighbor and true friend and very popular with all who knew him. He was a member of Olivet Baptist church for a number of years. His remains were brought here and buried in Hopewell Cemetery Sunday.

A few counterfeiters have lately been successfully curing disease for over 35 years. A sure protection for

The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood. It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of the most important organs. The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you are not only making your entire body ill and affected, but how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. ### MESSAGES PRESIDENTS

Valuable Book First Issued By Congress.

Mr. D. D. Dutton, representative of the Washington Post, is in the city in the interest of the valuable documents issued by the government, "Messages and Papers of the Presidents." This is the third distribution of the work, now in 11 volumes. The first 10 volumes were circulated by the government and the 11th consisted of only 6,000 copies. This is the second edition issued since it came into private hands. There is no other publication on the market that gives the same historical information, or gives it in so good a form and with such attention to accuracy and reliability. It contains every message of every President from Washington to Roosevelt. Mr. Dutton will remain long enough to make a canvass of the city and county, and we can heartily commend his work to all who need such documents in their libraries. It is well worth the price charged for it.

Negro Burned.

Sulphur Springs, Texas, August 11.—Tom Williams, a negro charged with attempting to criminally assault a young white girl early this morning, was burned at the stake in the court house square to-day. An armed posse of horsemen captured the negro. He was burned before an immense crowd of excited citizens.

Grave Trouble Foreseen.

It needs but little foresight to tell, that when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had neurasthenia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters, I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by R. C. Hardwick, druggist, at 50c a bottle.

Fined $5.00.

George Dabney, a negro boy, about 14 years of age, was carried before Judge Knight yesterday on a charge of shooting within the city limits. An officer had caught him in the act and Judge Knight assessed a fine of $5 and costs against him.

Poisons in Food.

Perhaps you don't realize that many pain poisons originate in your food, but some day you may feel a twinge of dyspepsia that will convince you. Dr. King's New Life Pills are guaranteed to cure all sickness due to poisons of undigested food—or money back, 25c at R. C. Hardwick drug store. Try them.

A fast train on the Nickel Plate road, collided with a freight train near Kishwaukee, O. and 12 men were killed and 25 other persons injured. Most of the men killed were Italian laborers.

Agonizing Burns

are instantly relieved, and perfectly healed, by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, C. Rivenbark, Jr., of Norfolk, Va., writes: "I burnt my knee dreadfully; that it blistered all over. Bucklen's Arnica Salve stopped the pain, and healed it without a scar." It also heals all wounds and sores. 25c at R. C. Hardwick druggist.

FOR MRS. DUKE.

County Chapter D. A. R. Instructs for Gen. Morgan's Sister.

The following resolutions were adopted by the Christian County Chapter U. D. C., at their regular meeting Saturday.

"That this chapter instruct for Mrs. Basil W. Duke, our state president and first vice president of the national organization, for national president, and that we place our vote at her disposal."

The national convention meets in San Francisco the first week in October. Mrs. Duke is not eligible for re-election for state president. She is a worthy sister of our Peerless John H. Morgan and a woman fitted in every respect for the high position of president of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Let Kentucky Daughters go to San Francisco with a united vote and purpose to elect her.

The Breeding Stock.

An idea prevails in the minds of some people that to breed good birds it is simply necessary to match together high-class specimens of each sex, and that the result of such a union should be offsprings of the orthodox type and quality. While good birds cannot be expected from bad ones, yet youngsters of the highest merit may be, and are produced from the mating together of imperfect specimens. A cock possessing certain properties in excess, matched to a hen deficient in the cock bird's excellencies, but possessing other points in which the cock bird is deficient has been known to produce the greatest specimens. The best breeders are not known in the show room, and the best show birds must be thrown the weakest specimens. It is the blending together of the good and bad that makes the strain of successful breeding.—American Fancier.

Freak Records.

Those who fail to gain distinction through other means, seem to seek odds of performance, and every little while there appears a challenge from some "champion egg eater," or other freak. The forty-quail-in-forty-days performance has been outdone by a man who recently ate a whole goose each day for thirty days, the fowl weighing from six to eleven pounds. Other records in this line are sixty soft-boiled eggs daily in six days, six quarts of beans in forty minutes, smoking fifty cigars in eleven hours without once taking a drink.

A Paris couple recently waltzed without cessation for six and three-quarter hours, while an English actor danced all the way from London to Norwich.—American Fancier.

CARES LITTLE FOR ALIENS.

Except for Remote Days England Has Paid No Attention to Its Foreigners.

England, except for the remote days when King John found it profitable to pluck the teeth of wealthy Jews, has troubled herself little about the alien. She did, however, get tremendously excited at the time of James I. of England over the question whether the enterprising spirits he brought with him from Scotland should be admitted to the privileges of English citizenship. The matter was the subject of solemn trial, and a sort of compromise was evolved. All those born before the union of the crowns were held to be aliens, and all those born afterward were to be brothers and citizens. It was also decided that a child born abroad whose father or grandfather on the father's side was a British subject might claim a similar privilege. He could not, however, successfully claim if his father at the time of his birth was a traitor or a felon or engaged in war against his country. In the 1745 rebellion several Jacobites found this provision useful, for, being regarded as aliens, they found themselves treated honorably as prisoners of war.

It's impossible for any woman to look as young as she thinks she looks.—Chicago Daily News.

Ten thousand persons have been rendered homeless in India.

COL. WALTER KELLY

As a Story-Teller Pleases Bro. Brewer.

Walter Kelly, general manager of the Giant Insurance Co., of Hopkinton, is exceeding fond of telling of a dog and badger fight recently witnessed by his son in Texas. Col. Kelly tells it in a very startling and graphic manner. In fact, he holds his audience, let them be few or many, spellbound and breathless until the sudden turn in the drama that is played, according to Mr. Kelly, in the most tragic manner. The story is most traveling miles to hear, it is useless for anyone to try to tell it, as he is the only one that can give the proper embellishment and bring out all the good points, especially where his son climbs up in the buggy to be in a safe position from the dog and badger, but as his son wrote him he got there to see the fight. Have no hesitancy in calling at Mr. Kelly's office over the First National Bank and have him tell the story. He never tires repeating it.—Fairview Review.

Feather Pulling.

The chief cause of hens pulling feathers is a lack of animal food. Salty meat rind hung up in poultry houses for the hens to pick at will very often check the habit of feather pulling. Fresh green bone fed regularly will be superior to any substitute offered.—Inland Farmer.

There is a whole lot of bombast in that paragraph. When a man has hens that are plucking feathers, he has also one well littered scratching shed. A busy hen, nor a busy man or woman is never doing development. It is the idle ones that do it. When a man confides hens, denies them exercise and natural food, they ought to pluck feathers, and if they could and would, pluck all the hair off his pate. The fresh green bone is good for hens, no matter whether they are or are not plucking feathers, but the salty meat rind—well, that is a pretty good suggestion when made by a chronic chicken paper scribbler in an agricultural paper. It will do no good, but will do very much less harm than lots they write. Have a scratching shed, litter it deep, feed all grain in it, supply your hens with forage and some animal food when all that is done right you will not have a hen that will pluck feathers from her neighbor.—Southern Poultry Journal.

Hailstones and Eggs.

There is some strange relation between hailstorms and poultry, or between hailstones and eggs, that fascinates mankind. The hailstone may be dodged, the egg should be dodged, but the comparison between hailstones and eggs never can be dodged. It is impossible to get away from it. Whenever there is a hailstorm, when tender plants are cut to death and window glass is shivered, the hailstones are always the size of hens' eggs. Nobody ever heard of a hailstone the size of baseballs, walnuts or potatoes, or the size of macadam rock, golf balls or potatoes, or the fist, but ever and always the size of eggs. Yet eggs vary in size.

No chicken fancier would think of pointing to a cackling hen and saying: "She lays eggs as big as hailstones."

There really should be no comparison between hailstones and eggs. A shower of hailstones may be destructive, but a shower of eggs is apt to be a work of ill nature. A shower of hailstones may be destructive, but a shower of eggs is positively insanity. The longer a hailstone stays on earth the more inconspicuous it becomes, while the longer an egg stays on earth the more convinced we are that it is here.—From the Washington Star.

The Nest Egg.

Most hens will take offense and seek a new nesting place unless the nest egg is left untouched. In winter this is liable to freeze and break. Not only soiling the nest but inducing the egg-eating habit. China eggs have one serious objection—they are so cold in winter that it must be positively uncomfortable to the hen to be obliged to sit upon one. Just think of the inconspicuity of the thing! We feed the hen warm food and give her warm drink to induce laying and then reverse the treatment by chilling her in this way. Our grandmothers used the nest-egg gourd for this purpose, and besides the merits of cheapness it is practically unbreakable with ordinary usage and is never uncomfortably cold.—Epitomist.

MAJ. FONTAINE A DEAD SHOT

Killed Sixty Men in One Hour—Was a Good Soldier.

WAS IN MANY FIGHTS.

Maj. Lamar Fontaine, Unique Character of the South, a Deadly Marksman.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 12.—One of the unique and picturesque characters who attended the confederate reunion here was Maj. Lamar Fontaine, a survivor of the immortal 600 who were under the fire forty-one days at Morris Island camp, and who for forty-one days existed on meat and pickles.

Of the 600 prisoners only 213 survived the storm of shot and shell hurled from confederate batteries, the federals having placed the prisoners in a hotel between the contending armies. Maj. Fontaine was the only one to make his escape and accomplished it by swimming seventeen miles in forty-nine hours.

He bears a letter from General Lee, setting forth that on one occasion he killed sixty men in sixty minutes his prowess as a marksman having excelled on the field of battle or on the skirmish line. He was wounded sixty-seven times, and has scarcely a bone in his body that does not bear the mark of a bullet.

He is 76 years old and rarely misses a reunion.

Took Part 184 Fights.

Lamar Fontaine took part in twenty-seven pitched battles, fifty-seven heavy skirmishes, and 100 individual skirmishes, in which he left from one to five men killed or wounded behind him, and individual record unequaled perhaps in the annals of civilized warfare.

He was several times captured by the federals and was two months in the dungeon of Fort Delaware in solitary confinement. He was sent from that prison with 600 comrades, to Charleston Harbor, where the entire 600 prisoners were placed under fire of the confederate batteries that surround Charleston. These prisoners were subsequently removed to Fort Pulaski where they were fed for forty days on corn meal and pickles. The ill and wounded were taken to Beaufort Hill Head.

Maj. Fontaine is the possessor of a curiosity in the shape of a carte blanche on the treasury of the confederate states which illustrates the confidence that was reposed in him. The carte blanche reads as follows: "The confederate states treasurer will honor any draft presented to him signed by Lamar Fontaine."

This document is properly executed and bears the seal of the confederate states. He also has a certificate from Gen. Robt. E. Lee, Gen. Stonewall Jackson and Gen. J. E. B. Stewart testifying to his marksmanship on the field of battle and on the skirmish line.

WONDERFUL CURE OF SORE HANDS

By Cuticura After the Most Awful Suffering Ever Experienced

EIGHT DOCTORS

And Many Remedies Failed to do a Cent's Worth of Good

"I was troubled with sore hands, so sore that when I would put them in water the pain would nearly set me crazy, the skin would peel off and the flesh would get hard and break. There would be blood flowing from at least fifty places on each hand. Wounds could never tell the suffering I endured for three years. I tried everything, but could get no relief. I tried at least eight different doctors, but none did me any good, as my hands were so bad when I got through doctoring as when I began. I also tried many remedies, but none of them ever did me one cent's worth of good. I was discouraged and heart-sore. I would feel so bad mornings, to think I had to go to work and stand the pain for ten hours, I often felt like giving up my position. Before I started to work I would have to wrap every finger up separately, so as to try and keep them soft, and then wear gloves over the rags to keep the grease from getting on my work. At night I would have to wear gloves; in fact, I had to wear gloves all the time. But thanks to Cuticura, that is all over now."

CURED FOR 50c.

"After doctoring for three years, and spending much money, a 50c. box of Cuticura Ointment ended all my sufferings. It's been two years since I used any, and I don't know what sore hands are now, and never lost a day's work while using Cuticura Ointment."

JAPS MUST KNOW NO EVIL

Doctrine That Is Taught the Children by Object Lessons at an Early Age.

The Japanese adage that one must speak no evil, see no evil, hear no evil is taught the children from their infancy. Over the temple door are three monkey images in different attitudes. One has its hands over its mouth, another over its eyes and still another over its ears. This object lesson in ignoring evil is explained to the youngsters during his wide-eyed, question-asking age and he is reminded of the monkeys so often that his curiosity is soon in subjection. This early training no doubt contributes to the repose of manner and adds to his passiveness of temperament. It is considered impolite to manifest surprise no matter what one may see. This principle allows the poor family to take its bath in sight of the street without scandalizing the neighborhood. If no one is shocked there need be no one embarrassed. This comforting logic acts in lieu of window blinds.

It is amusing to observe children at the temple. The other day I noticed a wee girl climbing up the long steps. She held a copper coin clutched tightly in one chubby fist. Approaching close to the railing before the cash box she balanced herself carefully and tossed her money between the slats. Then she grasped the rope which disturbs the drum overhead and aroused the echoes with all her Lilliputian strength. She seemed impressed with the necessity of making plenty of noise in order to attract the attention of the god. When satisfied in this respect, she composed herself for a moment, made a brief prayer, then made off in great haste. I was anxious to know what sort of supplication she could have made, so my companion, having knowledge of the language, agreed to question her. What sort of petition do you suppose she offered to the god? She wanted her mother cured of headache! Children are not allowed to pray for good things to eat, nor to ask for anything to promote pleasure. The deities are only appealed to for relief from want, distress or trouble.

SCARCITY OF STURGEON.

There Has Been a Change in the Potomac River in Last Few Years.

Sturgeon, which 25 years ago were as common in the Potomac and other tributaries of Chesapeake bay as perch are now, have become extremely scarce, due to their being caught in season and out, little and big, until now to catch sturgeon is a rarity, and the fortunate fisherman is looked upon with envy by his less fortunate comrades. So great has been the increase in the demand for the sturgeon that a large fish with spawn in it will often bring from $50 to $70. Recently an old fisherman, who has spent more than half a century taking fish from the waters of the Potomac, stated in the presence of a Washington Star reporter that within the past 25 years he has seen sturgeons caught in such quantities in the river that there was absolutely no sale for them and they were piled upon the shore like cordwood to be taken away by the farmers and used as fertilizer.

A catch of this kind now would mean a small fortune to the fisherman who made it, but that day has long since passed. The spawn of the sturgeon is now very valuable, and is used in the making of caviare. It sells for a dollar or more a pound, and as soon as a sturgeon is caught the spawn is taken from the fish before it is sent to the market. Twenty years ago, on the Alexandria fish wharf, and here, also, sturgeon spawn was given away for the asking, and was used by the boys as fish bait. So far this season the catch of sturgeon has been unusually small in the Potomac, and the same condition prevails on the James and other rivers in Virginia, once rich in the big fish.

A Sure Sign.

At this time of year the usual crop of stories about people finding turtles with signs of great antiquity on them—way the figures 1798—appear. The figures simply show that the boy and his pocket-knife are busy.

The negro who was killed home was at Cerulean.

Only a Mask.

Many are not being benefited by the summer vacation as they should be. Now, notwithstanding much outdoor life, they are little if any stronger than they were. The tan on their faces is darker and makes them look healthier, but it is only a mask. They are still nervous, easily tired, upset by trifles, and they do not eat or sleep well. What they need is what tones the nerves, perfects digestion, creates appetite, and makes sleep refreshing, and that is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Pupils and teachers generally will find the chief purpose of the vacation best subserved by this great medicine which we know, "builds up the whole system."
